Dr. Geoffrey Lentz

Dear Friends,

In Paul's first letter to the church in Corinth, he tells them that "Christ our Paschal lamb has been sacrificed, therefore let us keep the feast." The feast he is inviting us to keep is Easter (most of the Christian world still calls it Pasha). The way that you prepare for a feast is by a fast. During Lent many of us gave up things and practiced self denial, but now the fast is over. However, let us not just slide back into ordinary time, instead let us feast! The fast of Lent is 40 days, but the feast of Easter lasts for 50 days. This shows us that for Christians, feasting is more important than fasting. Jesus was famous not for fasting but feasting, telling the Pharisees when questioned about his constant feasting, "why fast when the bridegroom is in town." Feasting is a recognition that the Risen Christ is in town; it is a celebration of God's presence. It is a shame that we focus more on fasting during Lent than on feasting during Easter. Sure, most of us will have an Easter dinner with a ham or a rack of lamb with delicious sides and deviled eggs, but what if we carried our feast through the entire 50 days?

First a caveat—feasting is the opposite of gluttony. Gluttony is eating to manage our anxieties, but feasting is celebrating God's goodness. When we feast we are giving thanks to God and turning all of life into a doxology, "praising God from whom all blessings flow." Gluttony alienates us from creation and God, while feasting unites us with both. Here are some ways to feast during these "Great Fifty Days" :

- Invite some new friends over for dinner
- Take extra time to enjoy your coffee in the morning and thank God for another day
- Eat more eggs! Have fried eggs, deviled eggs, egg salad, egg drop soup...
- Try to watch the sunset (or sunrise) a few days of the week and say "thank you"
- Use the cloth napkins or the good china just because it is a day that ends in "y"
- Buy some fresh flowers for no good reason
- Take a walk and search for flowers, birds, and other living things
- Go out to eat and just order the dessert
- Get you haircut, nails done, buy a new dress or shirt, and say "Happy Easter, I am a new me!"

Let us look for ways to celebrate life for all 50 days! It is Easter y'all, let us keep the feast!

Peace of Christ,

Geoffrey

P.S. Easter Sunday was amazing! We had over 1,370 people in worship! A record! That is almost 50% of the population of PSJ! Thanks to all who made it possible: Ann Comforter, Bo Spring Band, Sanctuary Choir, Hilda Duren, Krystal Terry (children), Renee Shoaf (altar committee), chair movers, Walt Williams (sound/ cameras), Carolyn Simms (food and coffee), greeters, ushers, nursery, and many others!

Ann Comforter, Director of Music Ministries

It's difficult for me to believe that our March Music Month is over. We have enjoyed good music throughout the month with our special music by some of your favorite soloists, choir anthems, Bay area Choral concerts, and the Chancel choir's inspirational and moving Lenten concert, "One Sacrifice." I'd like to give a big "Shout-out" to Walt and Melinda Williams for their narration for our cantata. Your words transported us to the cross. Thank you for your service to the Church.

We were blessed to have David and Trudy Strand with us for March. Trudy is always so generous to share her talents with us while they are here, and we appreciate her so much. I encourage all of our visitors to consider singing with the chancel Choir while you are here. It would give us (the choir) an opportunity to get to know you better through God's music and it will give you an instant extended family while you are away from home. Think about it.....

I love our March Music Madness, but I am looking forward to getting back to "our normal," whatever that is.

Until next time, May God Bless You All !! Ann

Margo Russell, Pastoral Care Chairperson

Our condolences are extended to Olivia Robinson and family on the death of Pelham Robinson on 1-9-18; to Tina Williamson on the death of her mother, Jackie Moore, on 2-8-18; to Carol and Frank Weber on the death of their granddaughter, Sonia Weber, on 2-16-18; and to Mike Lacour on the death of his father, Thomas "Don" Lacour, on 3-13-18.

Bernadette Hackett, UMW President

Happy Spring is upon us. During winter your UMW has been very busy planning for our All Woman's Church Retreat. Please join us for this Spiritually Focused Fellowship Event. Diane Farnsley has put her heart and soul into coordinating the event and we so thank her for her hard work. All women are invited to attend. Please bring a covered dish for our luncheon and the event is FREE. Please join us.

BAKER WARRIOR ALERT:

UMW has been given an opportunity to be a part of a fundraiser that Bluewater Outriggers is running as part of their April 6 & 7 Tent Sale Event. We will receive 50% of the proceeds from the sale of hotdogs at that event. We are not being asked to work the event. We are being asked to bake 400 brownies to serve as dessert. The brownies are to be placed 2 to a baggie. They are to be brought to the Great Hall on April 5th between 10:00am and 4:00pm. Please leave on a table in the hall. If you are unable to drop off your brownies, please text or call: 850-340-0612 and I will come up with a plan for you. Baker Warriors, we need your help one more time. This was such a non labor intensive event that we could not turn it down. However, if I need to make all 400 brownies myself it will turn into a very labor intensive situation. So help! help!

April is also the month where we collect Elementary School Aged books. UMW Give-A-Book Program again plans to give every elementary aged student a book of their own to read and to keep. For some children this book adds to their home library; for some children this book is their home library. Reading is the key to educational success. Our UMW endeavors to nurture a love for learning through nurturing a love for reading. During the month of April we focus on reading. Donna Thompson will set up a basket in the lobby where books can be received. Donna will also speak to the event during Selected Sunday Service Mission Moments.

Members of UMW tutor children in the Elementary school on a weekly basis throughout the year. There are two programs to do this work. Both are coordinated by Ann Tison and she will be looking for volunteers for the 2018-2019 school year. Men and women volunteers are encouraged. Please contact Ann for further information on that program.

In May, UMW will have a joint evening meeting. We will be filling UMW Shoeboxes that will be shipped to Methodist Missionaries, throughout the world, for them to distribute to the populations they serve. Look in the May Salt Life for more information on that event.

Think that is all I have for the moment. I wish you all a beautiful Spring Month and hope to see you at UMW April Events. Blessings, Bernadette Hackett, President of UMW of PSJ
