Dr. Geoffrey Lentz

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year! During this time of the year people are making resolutions and starting new diets to make up for the feasting of the holidays. I am not sure that diets work. I have once gained weight trying out a new diet. Furthermore, most resolutions don't make it two weeks. This year we are encouraging our members to focus on health and wellness. This is not really about losing weight (although that might happen), it is about being healthy. One of the shames of our modern world is that we have developed a body/soul dualism. That means that we tend to think of these forces working against each other and unconnected. We value the spiritual/mental over the physical. No matter how hard we try to avoid this we are all children of the Greek Philosopher Plato, who thought that the cosmos was neatly divided between the two. However, the testimony of Scripture from the Old Testament, where God created stuff and called it good, to the New Testament, where God took on flesh in Jesus, testifies to a different fundamental philosophy. The physical and spiritual are not at odds but meant to be bound together. The great hope of Scripture, particularly the Book of Revelation, is that one day heaven and earth will be joined like at a wedding – where the “two become one.” This is what happened in Jesus, and this is what is happening in us called “church.”

We are beginning a church-wide curriculum called The Daniel Plan by Rick Warren. We are setting aside 40 days to integrate our bodies and souls. The five themes will be faith, fitness, food, focus, and friends. We will have many opportunities for exercise throughout each week from walking to full-body workouts. God cares about the health and wellness of your body and your soul. I hope you will join me during these days in making a commitment to love God more with “all your heart, soul, mind and strength.”

Peace of Christ,

Geoffrey

Chaplain Harvey Hennington

January is the time when people focus on possibilities, starting over on a clean sheet, making personal resolutions for life shifts or..... lots of procrastination. The cool weather of January and February kind of brings with it a cleansing quality to the world. Everything seems to glisten with a hopefulness of a clean white sheet of paper. It would seem we have all been given a fresh chance at life's possibilities.

When I was in High School I took a crafts class in which I was able to try my hand at a number of different projects. One of the crafts that I tried was jewelry making. Each piece was completely unique. Silver was melted in a crucible and a chemical catalyst was mixed in with the silver that caused the dross (impurities) to float to the top which were then scraped off. Often I have felt like God placed those things in my life that appeared at the time to be hindrances or obstacles, however most often they became like the catalyst, an element to purify, that when thrown into the mix brought the bad elements to the top so that they could be scraped off and the pure shiny silver could come forth.

Well, here we are again presented with a brand new year: 2018. After watching as many hopeful Christmas movies as I could humanly stand via the Hallmark Channel, and as many movies of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol, I suppose that I feel kind of led in the direction of supporting things that will improve the general welfare of mankind, or bring about hopefulness in a general sense. Perhaps I should increase the list of agencies that I support that help others through a variety of ways.

The one sure way that I know to improve the general condition of man is simply share the Word of God. Share the love of Christ with someone, anyone. It doesn't take a card carrying theologian to tell a person of some of the great things that your relationship with God means to you. It is inevitable that you will give hope to someone, and if what you share is from your heart, they will also feel your love and care for them as well as the love of Christ. A side benefit is our own growth that we will experience as we help grow the Family of God. Give it a try, God has promised that his word will never return empty.

Krystal Terry, Children's Director

Ann Comforter, Director of Music Ministries

As 2017 comes to a close and a new year is beginning, I would like to take just a minute and reflect on the music of our Church. I am surrounded by incredible musicians who freely give of their time and their talents to our Church. They give, not because they want to be seen or heard on center stage, but because they love GOD, they love our Church and they love music. It can be seen and heard during every service that we have. It takes all of us doing our part for the music to be successful and enjoyable, and it is performed for the Glory of our God, not us. We, the First United Methodist Church, are very fortunate to have Hilda Duren at the organ each Sunday. Her music is so inspirational and it adds so much to our worship services. (Thank you for everything you do for the music of the Church.) I appreciate the time that our Chancel Choir members spend all year long, but for the past 3 months, they have worked especially hard to prepare quality anthems for Sunday morning and then extra music for our concert, "This Holy Night." Our soloists have benefitted greatly from the assistance provided by Janis Ramos and it showed with outstanding performances by our Carla, Tamara, Dana and Mike.

The Bo Spring Band with Bo, Lauren, Randon, and Joel, give of their incredible talents for our early Contemporary service on Sundays. Their music adds a new and exciting feel for our worship services. Thank you for your dedication and service to our Church.

I feel very fortunate and humbled to be called your Director of Music. I will be celebrating my 10th year as your music director in January and this has been the most enjoyable "job" that I've ever had. Thank you! (AND thank you for our incredible new choir room upstairs.) We have so much room that we don't have to sit on top of each other for rehearsals and it gives us great pleasure to see and hear the Young Singers learn to sing so beautifully. Thank you, Dana for sharing your expertise and talents.

If you like to sing, I have a folder and chair waiting for you. We will be beginning our Easter Concert music in January, so if you would like to sing the concert without the responsibilities of Sunday morning anthems, we have a place for you. In fact, we have a place for you anyway!!

Until next time, MAY GOD Bless you in this New Year. Ann

Bernadette Hackett, UMW President

Hi Everyone, Wishing you a Merry Christmas as we continue to celebrate the birth of our Lord and continue to experience the blessings of the Twelve Days of Christmas. Last January we partnered with United Methodist Men in our big fundraiser of the year---Butts on the Bay. We could not have been successful without the baking assistance of all the women in our Church Family! Because of everyone's participation we were able to help many women and children in our community. Every child in the Elementary School was given their very own book to keep and to read. Additionally, we were able to help finance a special program for 6th grade children who have been struggling with reading skills. This Christmas Season we were able to help the High School Guidance Counselor provide much needed clothing to children in that school; and, we provided the elementary school Guidance Counselor with $500 in Piggly Wiggly gift cards to distribute to families in need. This is just some of the things we were able to do this year because of everyone's help, and, of course, attendance at Butts on the Bay.

Now, I am again asking for help with this all important fundraiser. WE NEED YOUR HELP TO BE BAKING WARRIORS! We will be having a giant Bake Sale that can only be Giant if you all Bake. We need homemade cakes, cookies, brownies, candy or fudge etc. Cakes can be sold as one large cake or can be cut in half and packaged that way. Bunt cakes are very easily cut in half. Cakes can be packaged on a plate and covered in cellophane or other clear plastic wrap. Cookies and brownies can be placed on plate in quantities of 1 dozen or a half dozen and covered with clear plastic wrap; they can also be placed in small baggies in quantities of 4 cookies or 2 brownies. Cupcakes can be packaged similarly.

Butts on the Bay is scheduled for Saturday, January 6th. Therefore, I will be available in the Great Hall on Friday, January 5th between 10:30am and Noon and then again from 3:30pm and 6:30pm to accept all baked items. You may also drop off your baked goods in the morning of the event at the event itself. You can bring it to the bake sale tables between 10am and 11AM.

Thank you all for your support of this event. You now know how important this fundraiser is to the women and children we are able to help in this community. Any questions, please call or text me at 850-340-0612 or email bernadettehackett@csu@gmail.com

Wishing you blessings in this New Year, Bernadette Hackett (Nagy)

Sunday School Spotlight-Alpha Class

New Year's Resolutions? It's not too early to start thinking about them! If improving your relationships with your Lord, your church members, and your community are part of your New Year's Commitment, We have an exciting idea just for you. Our group offers a slightly different approach to Sunday school fellowship. Rather than basing a class on age or other differences, we embrace all members from every adult age group. Our experience has been one of wisdom flowing from older to younger, and current issues and concerns flowing from younger to older, and love flowing in ALL directions. We also know that everyone's travels and schedules often prevent attendance, so our curriculums are ALWAYS tailored to the motto "attend if you can" and you will never feel left out or behind if you miss a class or several classes. Just look at some of the testimonials from several of our existing members:

I was encouraged to join a Sunday school class full of familiar faces during a difficult season. I am indebted to this group for their laughter, lively spirituality, intelligent discussion, unselfish support of the praises and sorrows among us, and camaraderie of people who do not hesitate to love like Christ. These friends are the hands on my shoulders

Be blessed, Jennifer Sheffield

Love radiates out of the Alpha class into our homes and our community, with the members buoying up one another as we seek God's Way for meeting life's challenges. Although my family lives hundreds of miles away, I know I'm never alone.

Blessings, Lynne Whitfield

The first time I stepped foot in the alpha class, I was scared and alone. I had never been a part of a Sunday school class and yet something drew me to that room. I quickly realized that Alpha is a family. A family that you know is there when life alters your ability to attend.

A couple of months ago I took a second job, and between work and travelling have not made it to class. There is a void felt as I carry on throughout my week. A void that the love, laughter, friendship and openness of the alpha members fill. This is my village-my people...and I am truly excited to be back with my church family in the coming weeks.

Mary Hess

I like the Alpha class because we have a fairly wide diversity of ages within our group which provides insights for all of us based on age, backgrounds and life experiences. I like the fact that we share our thoughts with each other and it becomes a learning experience for all. Some folks like studying Bible verses and analyzing them, but studying life lessons based in a Christian atmosphere means a lot to me and makes me think! I like that. I look forward to Dr. Mike's lessons.

Larry Johnson

Great diversity of people who are willing to share their own stories. Class is like close knit family. You can come and go as you are able and can always keep up with what is happening.

Jill

What an awesome group. Every Sunday is a different blessing, with different people but always with great amounts of LOVE and respect! NEVER BORING! Thank you Alpha class for your open acceptance of me. Also thanks for all you do for the Church AND the community.

D. M.

We want YOU to be a part of this amazing group, The Alpha Class. We have plenty of room for YOU and your FRIENDS, and we meet every Sunday at 10 AM upstairs in room 1.

So why not make being a part of this group part of your NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION? We at Alpha class look forward to meeting you!

UMCOR MISSION TEAMUNITED METHODIST COMMITTEE ON RELIEF

In 2007, Diana Wilder (wife of Walter Wilder), invited Skip Griffies to speak to her UMW mission group about his experience serving at the disaster relief warehouse in Baldwin, Louisiana. This facility prepares and verifies relief kits for disaster-stricken areas around the world. Following his presentation, 16 volunteers were interested in attending. Since that time and up through December 2017, 11 teams have traveled to this facility to work in this capacity. The teams have also completed home repairs, built a handicapped ramp, visited and worked in shelters for women and children. We hope that this mission will continue to be a vital part of First United Methodist Church of Port St. Joe. Below are photos of pictures from the first (2007) and (2017) teams.
